

Love rules the world
Language: Ukrainian

Love rules the world - we say it again and again
This is the truth of life.

Love calls us to follow, gives us happiness
And showers its grace upon us.

We live in harmony and peace, and we want to warm up everybody's hearts with endless Love.

We will guard planet Earth, like our mother,
Filling it with peace and Love.

How wonderful is Love, let the soul be joyful
Loving everything in the beautiful Universe
The shining star of Love will not fade away
And friendship will rule the world forever
